Miss Denise Harris, a senior from Oakridge, Tennessee, is Miss KSU for the 1978-79 school year. Miss Harris was elected in the spring 1978, and was crowned during football homecoming activities this past fall.

Majoring in accounting, she hopes to become a Certified Public Accountant.

The sixth of ten children, Miss Harris has two sisters also attending KSU. "It was my strong religious belief and encouragement from my family and church that helped me to make it through college and win the title," Denise said.

Denise has been active throughout her college career. She was freshman representative on the Student Council, a resident assistant, and a member of Delta Sigma Theta. She was also a member of the All-Campus Court.

Kentucky, Chandler Halls Occupied in Mid-Winter Following Extensive Renovation

Kentucky and Chandler Halls were occupied by junior and senior women in early January following extensive renovation and months of delay.

Both dormitories were originally scheduled for occupancy in August, but shortages of building supplies forced the mid-winter completion.

With temperatures rarely above freezing, women from Hunter and Young Halls moved into the multi-million dollar buildings. Kentucky Hall was renovated at a cost of $1.6 million, and Chandler Hall also ran well over $1 million. Two of the most modern dormitories in Kentucky, both have recreation areas, reception rooms, and modern living quarters.

Thousands of Local Citizens Attend

KSU Hosts Handel's Messiah

Thousands of local citizens attended the second annual presentation of Handel's Messiah in the Frankfort Sports and Convention Center just prior to Christmas break.

Hosted and organized by KSU, Carl Smith, associate professor of music, directed the overall production.

Area choirs from four high schools, the University of Kentucky, Morehead State, and Georgetown College joined the KSU choir in this second annual presentation. Local soloists from Frankfort and members of the Lexington Philharmonic Orchestra also performed.

Participating high schools included Franklin County, Mason County, Owen County, and Anderson County.

Construction Booming at KSU

Completion of Alumni Stadium, renovation of Kentucky and Chandler Halls, and the beginning of construction on a new academic services building head an impressive list of capital expenditures recently undertaken by KSU.

Alumni Stadium was dedicated on September 9, against Mississippi Valley State University. The $1.6 million football complex seats 6,500 fans and is complete with modern press box facilities, offices, weight and training room, laundry, and other athletic facilities.

Kentucky and Chandler Halls were completely renovated at a total cost exceeding $2.7 million. Junior and Senior women moved into the two dormitories during January.

A $7.9 million academic services building was begun this past fall with a scheduled completion date of summer 1980. It will house all major administrative offices, computer center, classrooms and academic offices.

Plays Abound at KSU

Stage productions abounded at KSU throughout the school year. Robert Woods and the Drama Department began early in the year with two productions taken from popular television series'. "The Engagement" and "Junior the Senior", were taken from Sanford and Son and Good Times respectively, and produced complete with television commercials.

Also during the first semester an evening of one acts was performed. Included were: "Monkey Palace," "Sorry, Wrong Number," "Sand Box," "Early Frost," and "A Piece of Pizza."

On November 28, Ron Banks, counselor in the Counseling/Placement office, produced, "Facts of College Life," an eight-act play depicting the spectrum of college life.

During the second semester, Robert Woods and his group went back to popular television series' and produced "Prescription Murder," from the Columbo series. This was quickly followed by, "Prodigal Son."

Late spring witnessed an evening with "One Acts with a Twist." Included were: "Superman," "The Web," "Dialect Determinism," and "Oral Interpretation Delivery."

Art Offers Diversified Study

Students majoring in the area of Art Education and Studio Art may choose from a wide range of programs. Included as options are: drawing, design, painting, printmaking, sculpture, ceramics, weaving, art history, and commercial art. A new Commercial Art program is being planned to further expand the overall Art curriculum.

Art exhibitions are held monthly in Jackson Hall Art Gallery, and art workshops and presentations by guest artists are frequent. Students receive individualized instruction and guidance. Most studio classes average 15 students or less.

Major objectives of the Art program include: prepare students for the profession of art educators on both elementary and secondary levels; assist students develop a sound foundation of artistic knowledge and skills with which to pursue graduate work in the visual arts; serve the interests of those students who wish to acquire an understanding of the visual arts and to broaden their cultural experiences; make available to all students the opportunities for creative expression through elective courses in studio arts; provide the university and the community an opportunity to broaden their aesthetic awareness through exposure to a professional gallery program.

Homer E. Allen

B.A., M.A., Univ. of Maryland; Northern Montana State College

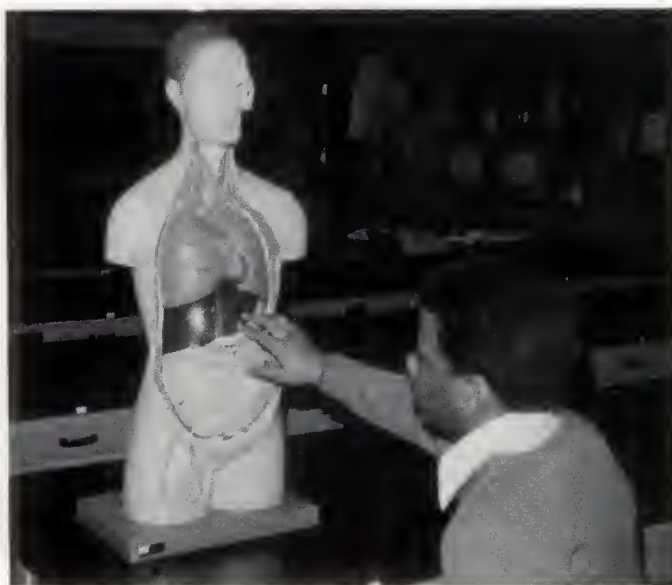

Research Programs Highlight Biology Department

Several federally funded research programs are currently being undertaken by the Department of Biology. Included are: National Aeronautics and Space Administration research on effects of oxygen exposure on Drosophila; transformation of normal Hampton embryonic cells to tumorous cells; effects of environmental stresses on rat tissues; United States Forestry Service soil bacteria research.

Students electing to major in Biology may choose from areas of concentration in Medical Technology, Pre-medical, Health Sciences, or Biology.

Items of new equipment added this school year include an inverted microscope for tissue culture, and a Mettler Analytical Balance.

Gertrude C. Ridgel
B.S., M.Ph., Ph.D.

Kellogg Foundation Grant Received by Business Department

Kellogg Foundation presented Kentucky State University's Business Department with a $406,000 grant during the school year. Purpose of the grant is for continued faculty development.

Students majoring in the area of business may choose from the following concentrations: accounting; business administration; economics; business education; management; marketing; office administration. Associate degrees are offered in accounting, office administration, and real estate. A one-year certificate is obtainable in office administration.

Special programs undertaken by the Department of Business include: Emory University Inter-collegiate Computer Business Games; Black Executive Exchange Program; Kentucky State University Community Research Service in the area of energy.

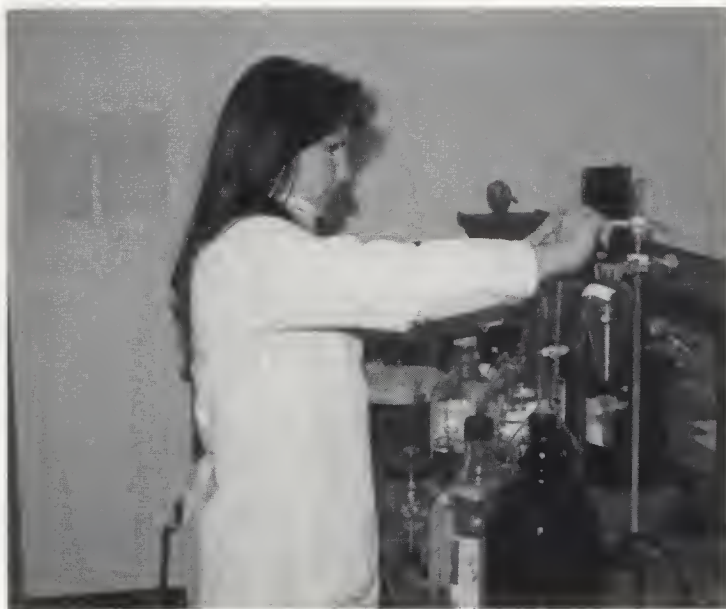

Gus T. Ridgel
B.S., M.A., Ph.D.

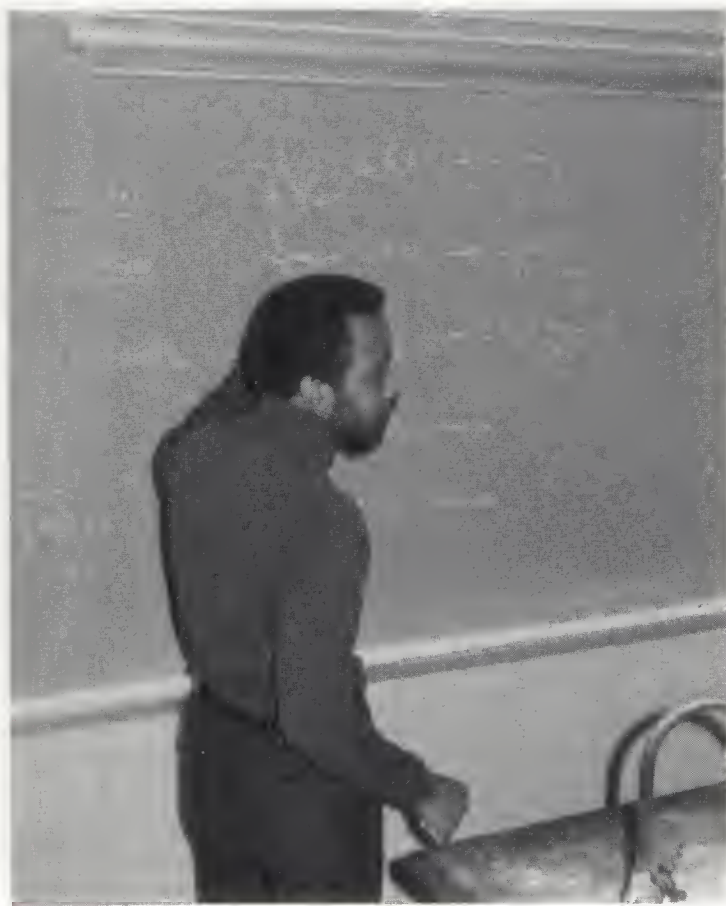

Chemistry Department Involved With Research

During this school year, the Chemistry Department has been involved with several research programs, including: Kentucky State University Community Research Service research into nutritional chemistry; research into surface chemistry; and research into magnetic resonance spectroscopy. National Science Foundation grant in the amount of $200,000 was received to develop a science learning center and to purchase new equipment.

David Richardson
B.A., M.S., Ph. D.

Computer Science Concentrates on Practical Training

KSU's Computer Science Department is unique in that its sole purpose is to train individuals as professional business data processing experts. Special emphasis is placed upon meeting the needs of state government agencies.

Robert L. Dean
B.B.A., M.B.A.

Major areas of concentration include computer programming and systems analysis. Degrees are offered in both the Associate in Applied Science and Bachelor of Science curriculums.

Primary objectives of the Computer Science Department include: providing an understanding of how computers work; giving students a working knowledge of computer concepts, programming, and systems; providing an experience through in-service training; providing the basis for further college study. During this past school year, new PDP 11/70 digital equipment was installed and 29 new terminals added.

Mary R. Twitty
A.B., M.S.

Criminal Justice Students Tour State Facilities

Criminal Justice students had the unique opportunity of touring Kentucky penitentiaries to discover first hand their operations. Students majoring in the Criminal Justice area may receive the four-year Bachelor of Science Degree in Criminal Justice or the two-year Associate Degree. Major objectives of the Department include: equip students with the knowledge and skills necessary to work effectively in the Criminal Justice System; provide students with the fundamentals of advance study.

Dramatics Offers Several Theatre Productions

The Speech and Drama area offered several major productions during the school year. Included were: The Goodtimes and Sanford & Son Comedy Hour; Prescription Murder; A Readers Theatre; An Evening of One Act Plays.

Students may receive a minor in Speech and Theatre. Areas of concentration include: communication, public speaking, acting, play directing; oral interpretation, and history of the theatre.

Purpose of the Speech and Drama area is to provide students with an ongoing background for both private and professional involvement in the art of Speech/Theatre.

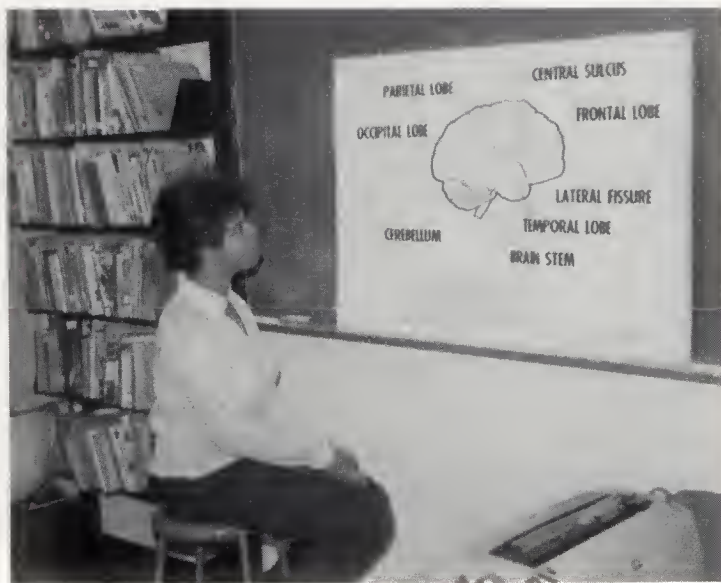

Robert L. Woods
A.B., M.A.

Department of Education and Psychology Serves Both General and Teacher Education Students

The Department of Education and Psychology serves both the general and teacher education students. Through education and psychology study, general students can better understand their own behavior and the behavior of others. Teacher education students can acquire a basic knowledge of the process of human growth and development, and an understanding of the educational process as it relates to teaching and learning. Most major Departments at KSU offer teacher training curricula.

Alfred D. Wiley
B.X., M.S., Ed. D.

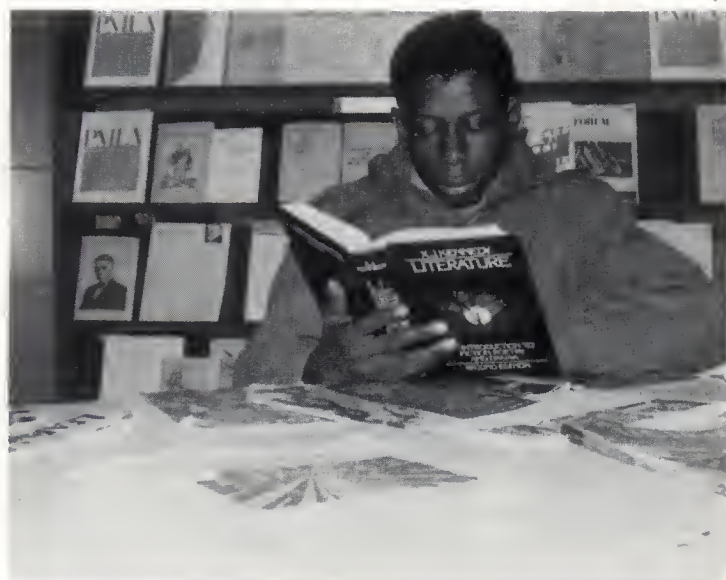

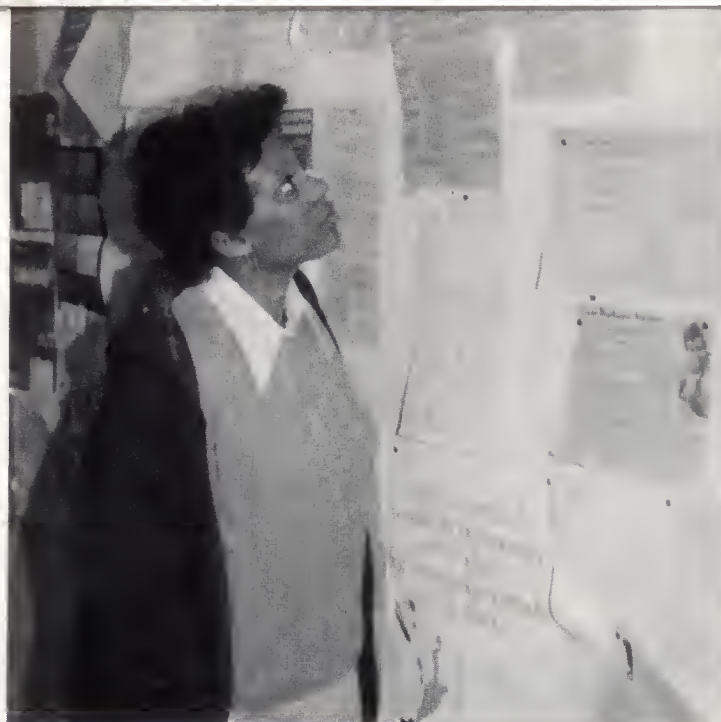

Eight Ph.D.'s Head Strong English Department Faculty

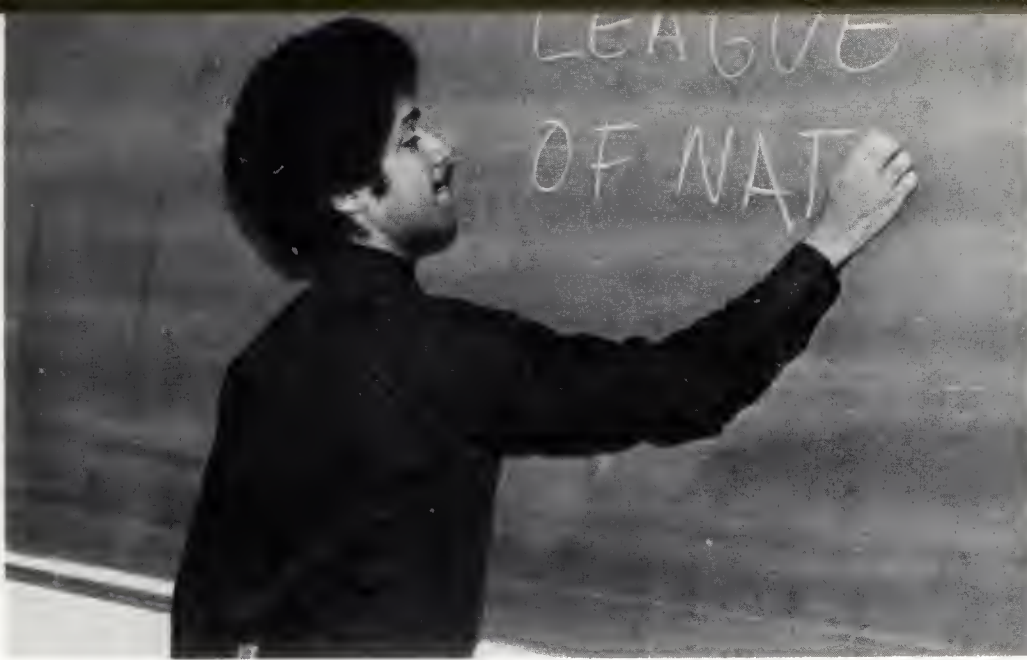

Eight faculty members with Ph.D. degrees head a strongly oriented academic program in the English Department. A total faculty of 21 teach in the major areas of English, reading, foreign languages, speech and theatre.

Major objectives of the Department of English include: to equip all students with proficiency in the fundamentals of written and spoken English and with appreciation for the power and beauty of creative literature; to train prospective teachers of English; to assist students who are majoring in English to lay a foundation for advanced studies.

Dr. Leonard Slade, Chairman of the Department of Literature and Foreign Languages has received a grant from the Kentucky Humanities Council to promote Black Literature throughout the Commonwealth.

Black History Archives Proposed by History and Political Science Area

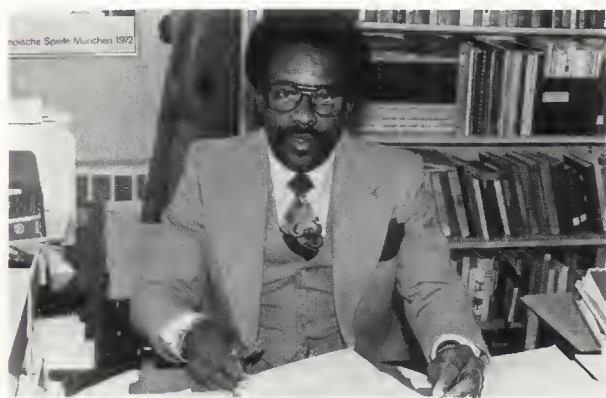

The Department of History and Political Science has proposed that an archives be established at Kentucky State University for the preservation, collection, and cataloging of historical materials pertinent to blacks. Other programs sponsored by the Department include the Great Decisions Program and Black History Week.

Objectives of the History and Political Science area include: to acquaint students with the privileges and duties of citizenship; to prepare students for vocational opportunities in the fields of education, government service, and related areas.

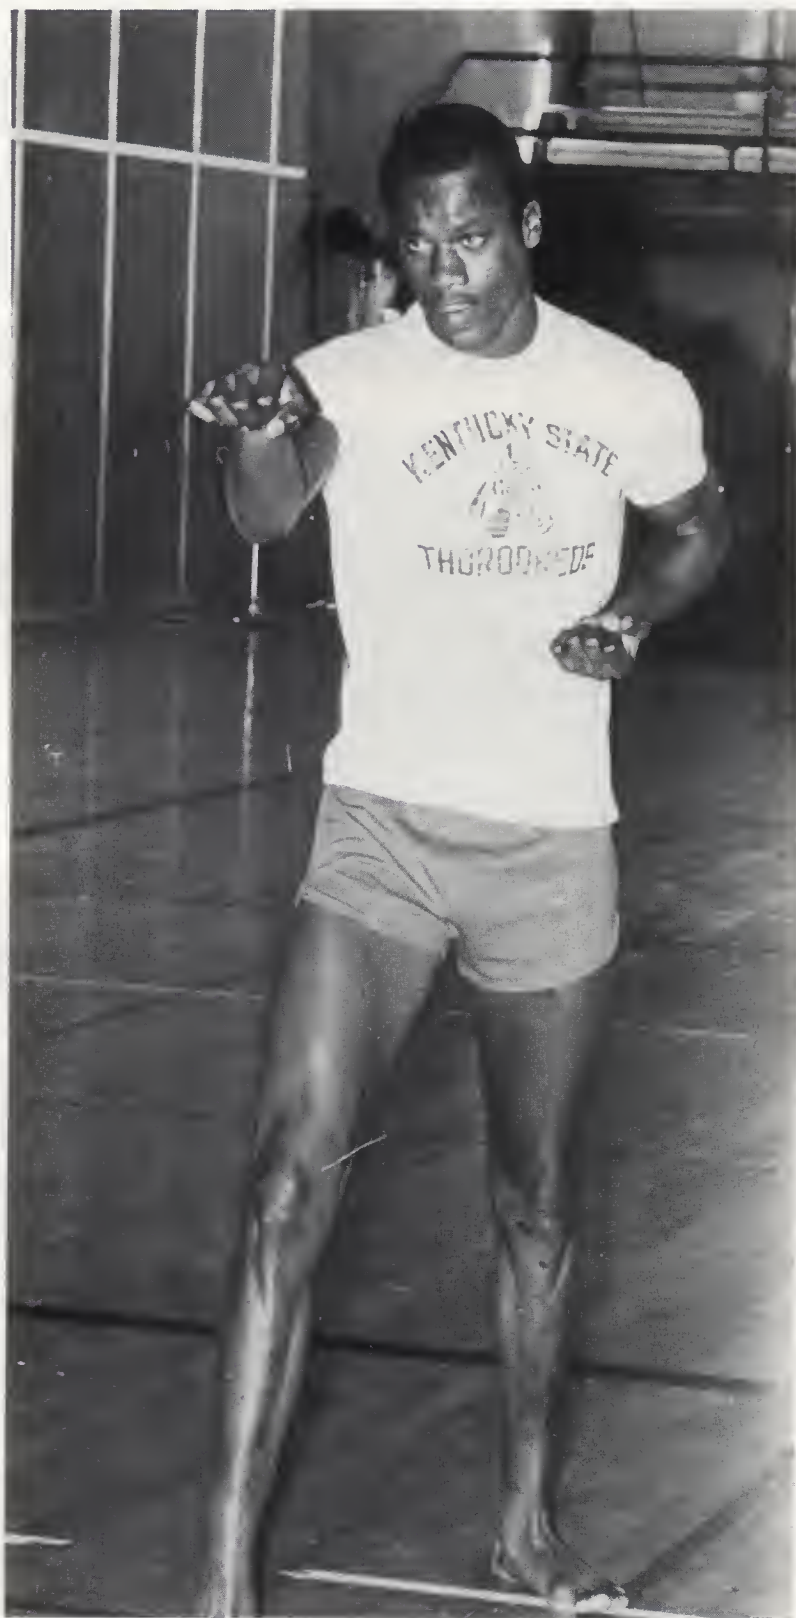

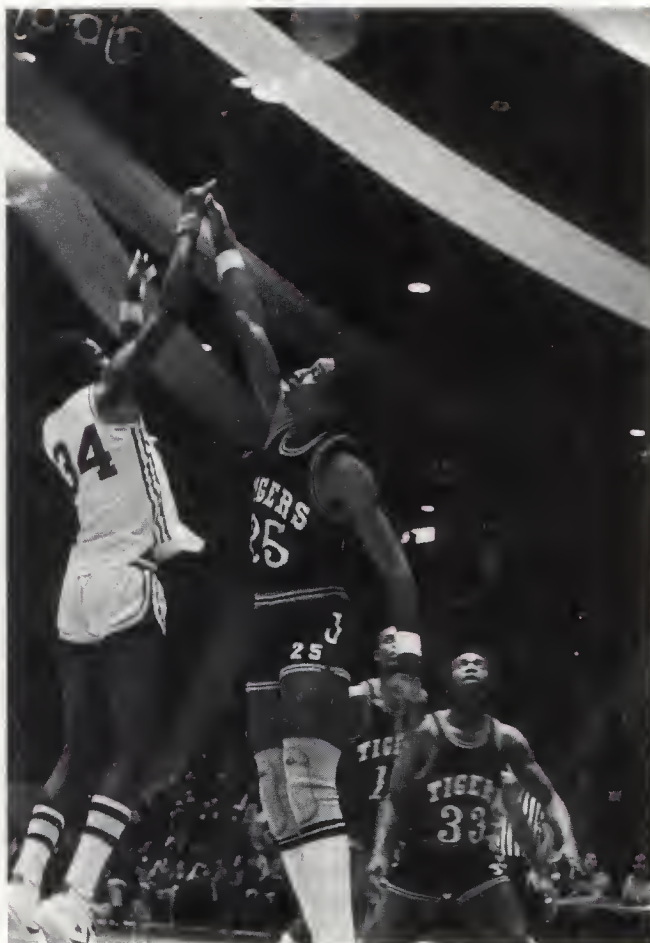

Department of Physical Education, Health and Recreation Prepares Teachers and Coaches

The Department of Physical Education, Health and Recreation prepares teachers and coaches as its primary objective. Objectives of the Department include: to prepare students to teach Health Education, Physical Education, Safety Education, and to direct recreational programs in public and private agencies and institutions; to provide training for future use by those who plan to pursue careers in Physical Medicine.

Industrial Education Offers Varied Programs

The Industrial Education Department offers a varied program to both full and part-time students. Students participate for personal enrichment and occupational enrichment. The Department offers a program leading to the Bachelor of Science Degree in Industrial Education and also a curriculum in Manufacturing Technology.

Associate Degree programs are offered in Aviation Flight Technology, Drafting and Design Technology, and Electronics Technology.

Mathematics and Physics Department Also Provides Basis for Engineering Study

The Mathematics and Physics Department in cooperation with the University of Kentucky, offers students a five-year double degree program. Participating students receive a Bachelor of Science in Applied Science degree from KSU, and a Bachelor of Science in Engineering degree from U. of K. Engineering students study the basic curricula at KSU which prepares them for transfer in the fields of Agricultural Engineering, Chemical and Metallurgical Engineering, Civil Engineering, Mining Engineering, Electrical and Mechanical Engineering. The first three years of study are done at KSU with the following two years being completed at U. of K.

A Bachelor of Science degree with a major in mathematics is also offered by the Department.

Warren C. Swindell
B.S., M.M., Ph.D.

Music Department Offers Complete Curriculum

The KSU Music Department offers students a complete curriculum of music study. Bachelor degrees are offered in Theory and Composition with Commercial Music Composition/Arranging Emphasis, Music Degree in Applied Music, Music Education, Music Degree in Theory Composition, Applied Music, and a Bachelor of Arts with Music Major. An Associate Degree is offered in Commercial Music.

Music Department faculty and facilities are second to none in the Commonwealth. Available to interested students are opportunities to participate with the marching band, concert band, wind ensemble, jazz ensemble, experimental laboratory ensemble, experimental jazz laboratory ensemble, and the University choir.

French, Spanish Offered by Modern Foreign Languages Area

Arsenio Alfaro
B.A., M.A., Ph.D.

French and Spanish are the two major languages offered by the Modern Foreign Languages area. Students have the opportunity to major or minor in both languages. Special emphasis is placed upon the language, literature, civilization, and methodology. A complete language laboratory is available to all students.

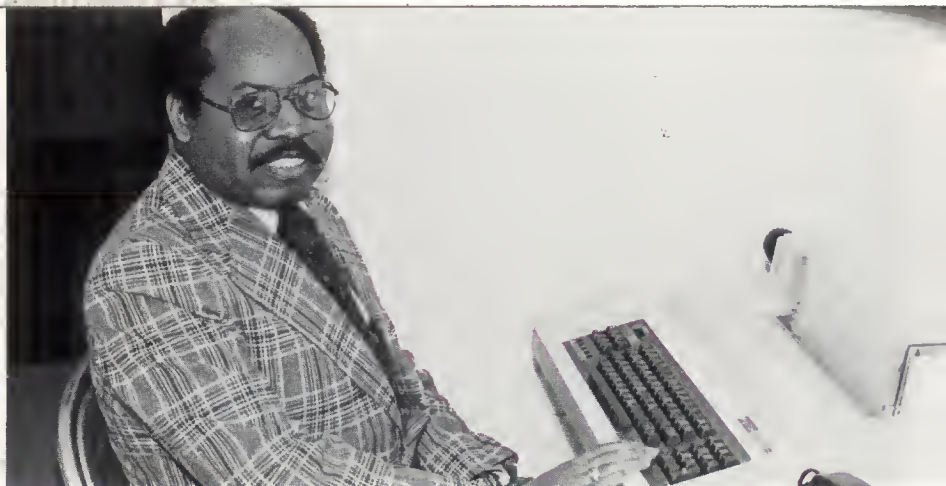

Patsy O. Turner
B.S.N., M.S.N.

Associate Degree Offered in Nursing

Associate in Applied Science Degree in Nursing is offered by the Nursing area. Rigid entrance requirements insure that accepted candidates are capable of completing course requirements. All credits earned in this program can be applied toward a Bachelor of Nursing degree. Modern hospital equipment insures that students receive the best possible training.

The School of Public Affairs offers both bachelor and master degrees in Public Affairs. It is the only master's degree presently offered by KSU. Major areas of concentration include management skills development, human resource management, and regional and natural resources administration. Special programs undertaken by the School of Public Affairs includes the Public Service Institute, designed to facilitate program needs of state government agencies and private industry. Internship placement results in on-the-job practical training and is one of the most important features of the Public Affairs program. Many of the classes are conducted in the evening, on Saturdays, and during lunch hours to make it easier for state government employees and others to participate.

Advanced Military Science Offered at KSU

Advanced Military Science is now offered at Kentucky State University. It culminates with a six-week camp at Ft. Riley, Kansas. The basic course offered at KSU can be completed either by attending classroom instruction or by attending a six-week summer camp at Ft. Knox, Kentucky.

Primary objective of the Military Science Department is to provide commissioned officers for all branches of the active U.S. Army, Army Reserve, and the Army National Guard.

All KSU Military Science students have the opportunity to participate in the ROTC Honor Guard, cliff rappelling exercises, rubber rafting, survival training, basic marksmanship, land navigation, physical training, team competition, and social activities.

Kentucky State Football Kicks-Off Another Great Sports Year

Kentucky State head football coach Leroy Smith and his assistants led the Kentucky State University football team through drills and victories in the 1978 football campaign. The Thorobreds just missed a chance at the NAIA national playoffs and finished the year with a 7-2-1 record. The Thorobreds had several players honored in post season tributes for their outstanding play.

Mike Johnson, a junior defensive tackle, was honored on the NAIA All-American first team for his outstanding contributions to the Thorobred squad. Senior offensive guard Clarence Clegg and senior offensive tackle Henry Speed were given Honorable Mention by the NAIA. Speed and senior center Leon Taylor were picked to play in the Black College All-Star Bowl in New Orleans, January 7, and they both were named top linemen by Ebony magazine. In the All-Star game, both Taylor and Speed earned starting berths and helped Will Jefferies' East squad earn a 35 to 30 victory.

Eight players were named to the NAIA District 24 and 32 All-District team with head coach Leroy Smith being named Coach of the Year. Five players were also named to the All-Kentucky team by Kentucky Sports World magazine.

KSU vs. Fayetteville 27-13

When the season started, it looked as though things were going to go right for the Thorobreds. It was sunny and warm when the KSU buses rolled into Fayetteville, North Carolina. It was a long trip, more than 15 hours, but Coach Smith had readied his troops for the first battle.

At game time, 7:30 PM, the sun began to fade and the Fayetteville State administration turned on the lights. Lights? There were forty lights that glowed onto the Bronco's field — 20 on each side — and Coach Smith remembers, "It was like 30 or 40 Boy Scouts standing in two lines with candles. The only circumstance that was tolerable was that they had to play in the same light, but then they were used to it."

3,500 people packed the small but friendly Fayetteville stadium at kick-off, and by half there were over 5,000. At the end of the first quarter, both teams were scoreless.

The second quarter was all Fayetteville State. Running tackle plays, the Broncos pushed across two touchdowns in the period and went to the locker room with a comfortable 13-0 lead.

When the teams returned, it became a do or die situation for Kentucky State. Fighting and churning up yardage, the Thorobreds pushed across their first score midway through the third period as Joe Reeves went in from the 5 yard line and Mark Stoute added the extra point. 13-7 and still a long way to go.

In the final period, KSU took complete control of the game. The defensive line continued to force Fayetteville into mistakes and Kentucky State scored three more times to take the 27 to 13 win. Joe Reeves added another score, and Ruie Hannah rushed for two. Mark Stoute, KSU's barefoot kicker, was 3 of 4 on point-after kicks.

KSU vs. Mississippi Valley 21-7

KSU dedicated its new, 5,500 seat football stadium and adjacent fieldhouse with a very tough opponent. Mississippi Valley State University from Itta Bena, Mississippi, provided the opposition and the Thorobreds had their hands full.

The day proved to be a succession of firsts . . . the first game . . . the first band . . . the first crowd . . . and most importantly, THE FIRST WIN.

Valley State, KSU President Butts' Alma Mater, won the opening toss and received the first ever kick-off in Alumni Stadium before 5,500 fans. Four plays later, KSU got its first possession, but couldn't move the ball.

Neither team could move for any advantage early in the first period until Joe Reeves pushed across from the one and gave KSU its first score and a 6-0 lead. The extra point failed. Neither team scored in the remainder of the first half, and the score was 6-0 at the half.

As the second half began Kentucky State received the kick-off and could not move and Valley State took a Johnson punt at the 10-yard line. Three plays later the Valley State quarterback was thrown for a 6-yard loss by Harold Smith and fumbled the ball as Clarence Palmer jumped on the pigskin for the Thorobreds. Again it was Joe Reeves that carried it in, this time from the four, and with a two point conversion on a pass from Reeves to Harold Wells it was 14-0 KSU.

Mark Stoute sent the kickoff into the end zone and Valley State took control at the 20. On the first play a MVSU running back fumbled and again the Thorobreds recovered, this time on the MVSU 24 . . . 5 plays later Joe Reeves pushed his year's scoring total to 30 points as he carried it across from the 2-yard line.

With 3:35 left in the game, Valley State got its only score on a 5-yard pass play and the Thorobreds ran the clock out on the final possession to take their first ever decision in Alumni Stadium and second of the year 21-7 over the Devils of Mississippi Valley State.

KSU vs. Morehead 7-7

Over 6,500 people marched through the gates to watch the Morehead Eagles in their home and season opener against KSU.

Things began all wrong for the Thorobreds . . . with 9:31 left in the first period, Morehead pushed across a score from the 8 yard line and took a 7-0 lead. It was Morehead's first possession. The Thorobreds had six possessions during the remainder of the first half, but could not score. Halftime: Morehead 7 KSU 0.

In the third period, KSU had four possessions, but couldn't score. The fourth quarter began with KSU having the ball, but the offense stalled again. On Morehead's second possession of the quarter, Phil Simms, MSU's quarterback, lofted a pass to Larry Campassi, but Thorobred sophomore defensive back Lester Cooperwood stepped in, picked off the bomb, and raced 55 yards for a touchdown. Mark Stoute tacked on the extra point to give the Breds a 7 to 7 tie.

KSU vs. Knoxville College 14-7

It was home to friendly Alumni Stadium and supposedly easy Knoxville College, but the game was not nearly as easy as it might appear.

With 7:19 left in the first quarter, Ronald Clark took a touchdown handoff from Joe Reeves from the 8-yard line and with the extra point, KSU had a 7-0 lead. With 12:58 left in the second period, Harold Wells took a Knoxville punt and raced down the right sideline 72 yards to pay dirt. With the extra point, KSU had a 14-0 lead.

The 14-0 lead held well into the third quarter before the visiting Bulldogs hit pay dirt.

Kentucky State's defense went to work and held Knoxville the rest of the way to give the Thorobreds their third win of the year.

KSU vs. Morris Brown 14-15

It was another long road trip for the '78 Thorobreds as they once again climbed aboard the buses for an encounter with the Wolverines of Morris Brown College in Atlanta, Georgia. The game remained a scoreless tie until 12:59 was left in the second period. Joe Reeves scrambled left and then right before breaking loose from the 20-yard line and scoring a KSU touchdown. With the extra point the Thorobreds had a 7-0 lead. With 10:57 left in the third period, Morris Brown tied it up with a one-yard run.

KSU jumped back into the lead with 6:00 remaining in the third quarter when Joe Reeves tossed a 6-yard pass to Anthony Hardy, but Morris Brown was not to be denied. Kentucky State's defense held Morris Brown until :40 remained in the game. With a 4th and 14 situation on the KSU 23-yard line, Morris Brown lofted a pass toward the end zone and as two KSU defenders raced for the ball, the Wolverines had pulled within one point at 14-13. The two-point conversion was good and Morris Brown won 15-14.

KSU vs. Central State 29-28

Next on the schedule was arch rival Central State of Ohio in the 9th Annual Shrine Classic in Dayton, Ohio.

Both teams were scoreless in the first period. The second quarter provided a real thrill for everyone at the game and anyone listening on the KSU radio network. 4:14 showed on the clock as Harold Wells hauled in a Joe Reeves pass and raced 26 yards for a Thorobred touchdown. The extra point failed. KSU 6 . . . Central State 0. On the ensuing kickoff, the Central State receiver stepped back into the end zone and the Thorobreds claimed a safety for an 8-0 lead.

Central State broke into the scoring column on a two-yard run and with the extra point, trailed 8-7. On the kickoff after this touchdown, KSU's Ted Otey raced 95 yards with the help of some great blocking and with the extra point, KSU increased its lead to 15-7.

The third period was all Central State. The Mauraders scored three times . . . a two-yard run, a one-yard run, and a 44-yard pass play to take what seemed to be an unbeatable lead of 28-15.

The Thorobreds wouldn't quit. People along press row began writing of the Central State victory. That was until . . . Victor Rice, a freshman quarterback who had seen only limited action to this point, moved into the line-up. It was Rice who carried it in from the 5-yard line with 10:01 remaining in the game. KSU still trailed 28-21. With excellent defense play, the Thorobreds had the ball again with 7:00 remaining. It didn't take long . . . sophomore running back Ronald Clark pushed across the score from the 2-yard line . . . CSU 28 KSU 27. The Thorobreds took a time out with the extra point still to come. Coach Smith talked with his young signal caller. Rice called the line set and coolly passed for the extra point. The ball went deep into the right corner of the end zone and there with outstretched arms was Eddie Marshall to haul in the two-point pass. KSU won over Central State 29-28, and improved its record to 4-1-1.

KSU vs. Lincoln University 32-20

Lincoln University of Missouri was next as KSU celebrated Homecoming. In the annual celebration, played once again in the rain, the Thorobreds jumped to an early 6-0 lead on a 2-yard run by Victor Rice, and took a 13-0 lead to the locker room on a 18-yard run by Ruie Hannah. KSU seemed to have the game well in hand.

Lincoln was not so agreeable, however. With 14:34 left on the clock, on just the third play of the half, a Tiger running back swept right end 65 yards for a score. Less than 8 minutes later a four-yard run netted Lincoln another score and suddenly it was 14-13. But this was Homecoming, and KSU was not to be denied.

In the final quarter, the Thorobreds rallied for three scores while limiting Lincoln to one for a 32-20 victory. Victor Rice went in from the one and also passed to Ruie Hannah for the second score. Hannah added an insurance TD on a 1-yard run.

KSU vs. Arkansas Pine Bluff 31-17

Next in Alumni Stadium it was Arkansas Pine Bluff. The Thorobreds were now looking seriously at the playoff picture knowing that one more loss or tie would keep them out. The Breds scored quickly in the first quarter to take a 6-0 lead. Arkansas countered with a 35-yard field goal early in the second period, but the Thorobreds added two second quarter scores to take an 18-3 lead at the half.

It was mostly KSU in the second half as Ronald Clark scored on a 4-yard run, Harold Salter, returning to action for the first time since the Mississippi Valley game, carried in from the 2, and Ruie Hannah scored three times on runs of one, two, and 10 yards. Mark Stoute broke a personal scoring drought in the final period. Final score: KSU 31 Arkansas Pine Bluff 17. The Thorobreds moved to 8th in the NAIA national rankings.

KSU vs. Delaware State 18-12

With the playoffs very much on the minds of Thorobred fans everywhere, the Hornets of Delaware State came to call at Alumni Stadium. It was another must win for KSU.

The Hornets were the first to score on a 4-yard pass play and held a 6-0 lead at the end of the first period. The Thorobreds rallied for two second quarter scores and took a 12-16 halftime advantage. Ronald Clark scored on a 3-yard run and Harold Wells scored on a 28-yard pass from Victor Rice.

Delaware State pushed the score to 12-12 on a 10-yard pass play just one minute into the second half. Both teams continued to play strongly on defense before Harold Salter pushed across from the one-yard line with 2:01 remaining in the game. Delaware State could only burn up four downs as KSU ran out the clock on its final possession. Final score: KSU 18 Delaware State 12. The Thorobreds now owned a 7-1-1 record.

KSU vs. Alabama State 14-21

The eyes of all KSU football fans were focused on Alumni Stadium Saturday afternoon November 11. The Thorobreds were riding a four-game regular season winning streak, an 11-game home winning streak, and a shot at the NAIA football playoffs. KSU had climbed to 8th in the most recent poll, and with a win against Alabama State, was almost virtually assured a spot in the playoffs.

The afternoon seemed to favor Kentucky State as Harold Wells gathered in a pass from Victor Rice and scampered 54 yards to paydirt and the first score of the afternoon. The extra point failed and KSU had to settle for a 6-0 lead. Alabama State scored in the second quarter and took a 7-6 halftime lead.

The third quarter proved to be the beginning of the end for the Thorobreds. Kentucky State suffered through two pass interceptions and a fumble on its only three possessions. Alabama State, meanwhile, scored 14 points to build a 21-6 lead. The tone for the second half was set on the opening kickoff when the Alabama State receiver took the kickoff at the goal line, returned it 11 yards and handed it off. The new ball carrier rambled to the K-State 14 yard line before Howard Jackson knocked him out of bounds. Three plays later a 4-yard run produced the first Alabama State score.

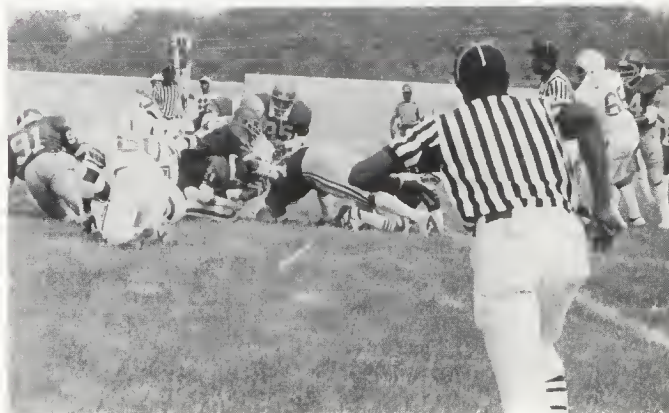

On the next KSU series, Alabama State picked off a pass and in six plays marched 61 yards to take a 21-6 lead. It looked as though Kentucky State might pull it out as Victor Rice found Robert Skinner wide open in the end zone from 28 yards out and also hit Skinner for the two-point conversion to pull KSU within seven at 21-14. The Thorobreds had a break with seven minutes remaining in the game as they recovered a fumble on the Alabama State 45, but on fourth and nine, a sure first down pass glanced off the fingers of the KSU receiver and the drive was stopped.

Kentucky State had two more possessions but was never able to get it across. The afternoon proved to be full of disasters as KSU lost two fumbles and had four passes intercepted. "We knew when we saw the films on Alabama State that they were going to be the best team we had played all year," commented KSU head coach Leroy Smith after the game. "I guess our luck just ran out today." With the 21-14 loss, KSU finished the season with a 7-2-1 record. Also lost was KSU's 11-game home winning streak, and the chance to play in the NAIA playoffs for the second consecutive year. The Thorobreds finished 14th in the final NAIA poll.

Much credit for this fine season must go to head coach Leroy Smith and his assistants — Ralph Bishop, Lonzo Bullie, Clark Frost, and Charles Figgs. KSU will be ready once again in September as the referee sounds his whistle and the leaves begin to turn, to once again push the pigskin across the goal line for the Green and Gold. Hopefully, 1979 will see the NAIA national championship come to the Thorobreds of Kentucky State University.

Thorobreds Finish 18-11 and Make NAIA Playoffs

New Coach, New System, But Another Winning Year

Adding to the tradition of winning basketball, Kentucky State University hired a new basketball coach in March 1978 to replace James Oliver, who resigned to take the head coaching position at Alabama State University. At an early afternoon press conference at the Capital Plaza Sports and Convention Center, President Butts announced the hiring of Floyd Theard as KSU's new head basketball coach. Coach Theard is a 1967 graduate of Kentucky State who was an All-Midwest guard during his KSU playing days. Theard also played in the professional ranks following his Thorobred days.

From the professional ranks, Theard took the head coaching job at Denver's Manual High School. In his second year at the Colorado school, he led his basketball squad into the state playoffs, finishing at the state runner-up with a 22-1 record.

From Denver, Coach Theard moved on to the University of Iowa where he stayed for four seasons as a top assistant. When the KSU opening occurred, Coach Theard jumped at the opportunity. "It is a challenge to return to my Alma Mater and hopefully continue the winning tradition of the Thorobreds," said Theard of his appointment. "I know that the young men will have to adjust to a new coaching staff and new system, but we should be able to have things going our way before the season is over."

Joining Coach Theard on his staff was Silas Mckinnie. Mckinnie is a former professional football player and collegiate star at the University of Iowa. Second assistant on this year's staff was Ron Mitchell, who is also the Assistant Dean of Students at KSU. Coach Mitchell is a 1965 graduate of Kentucky State, and he has served as the head coach at Boston University and Granelle College.

Breds Open With Campbellsville

It appeared that a dark cloud had moved over Coach Theard's coaching reign at the beginning. The Thorobreds jumped to an early lead over Campbellsville in the season opener, but couldn't pull out the win. Mike Busby led KSU with 22 points, and Kelvin Taylor pulled down 10 rebounds, but to no avail as Campbellsville took a 104-96 win.

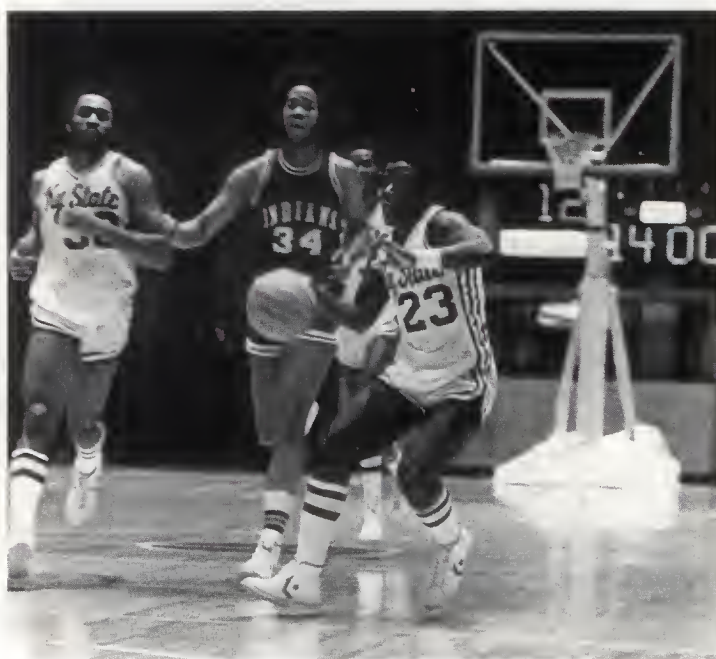

It was just two days later that the Thorobreds had to entertain defending NAIA district 32 champion, Cumberland College. The Indians had defeated KSU in the district playoffs in 1978 to eliminate the Thorobreds. Although Cumberland took a 45-42 halftime lead, the Thorobreds came back with an inspired press and strong defense that won the roundballers their first victory, 93-83. Again, it was Mike Busby with 27 points that led the KSU scoring, and Charles Tryon pulled down 11 rebounds.

Game three found the Thorobreds hosting Jackson State University. The Breds took an early lead and ran to a 79-59 decision. Mike Busby and Mike Jackson each tallied 16 points, and Busby had a team high seven rebounds.

Posting an early season 2-1 record, the young Thorobreds now faced 10 consecutive road games including two tournaments.

10 Consecutive Road Games Bring Five Victories

Up and down basketball highlighted a long, 10-game road test for the Breds of K-State, and when it was over, the Thorobreds had broken even . . . winning five and losing five. Bethune-Cookman, Chicago State, Kentucky Wesleyan, Northern Kentucky, and Carson-Newman fell victims to Kentucky State's roundballers, but Albany State, Quincy College, Alcorn State, Jackson State, and Tennessee State stuck it to the Breds. Coach Theard's young chargers finished second in both the Florida A & M Tournament and the All-American City Christmas Classic hosted by Kentucky Wesleyan. Standout performances during the long road trip were posted by Mike Busby, Kelvin Taylor, Mike Jackson, Charles Tryon, Clarence Williams, and Bruce Coles. The Breds finally returned home having played only two of 13 games in Frankfort. At mid-point in the season, Coach Theard's first, K-State's record was seven victories against six defeats.

Mid-Season Schedule Was Not Easy

After a month of road games, K-State finally returned to the Frankfort Sports and Convention Center for a match with arch-rival Central State of Ohio. The Breds had won the last 11 meetings, but the Mauraders had revenge in mind. Central State surged to an early 20-12 lead and never looked back. The Green and Gold pulled within four in the second half, but the Mauraders ran off the needed points to win 72-58. Kelvin Taylor led Thorobred scorers with 14, and Charles Tryon pulled down 10 rebounds. Coach Theard's roundballers had now evened their season at seven and seven.

The Bears of Pikeville were next in line during this welcome three-game homestand. Behind 26 points from Mike Busby and 13 rebounds from Kelvin Taylor, the Thorobreds never trailed in posting a strong 99-70 win.

Now above the .500 mark, the Breds prepared for a rematch with the Norse of Northern Kentucky. The near-by neighbors had played the Thorobreds to an overtime before losing earlier in the year, but this game was different. Kentucky State moved to a 45-21 halftime lead and cruised to a 95-75 victory, pushing in the right direction away from the .500 mark on the season.

On the road again, this time 15 miles to the east in Georgetown. The Tigers prowled and pawed at the Thorobreds, but down the stretch, K-State pulled it out. Georgetown had taken the lead 66-64 with 1:05 remaining, but the Thorobreds scored the final four points to claim a 68-66 decision. 6'8" senior center Kelvin Taylor poured in 30 points and pulled down a Thorobred season-high 18 rebounds to lead the Breds. With this victory, KSU's season record moved to 10 victories against 7 defeats.

The Thorobred racing machine was now in high gear as Tennessee State paid a visit to Frankfort. KSU pulled ahead and held an eight-point lead midway through the second half. Bruce Coles was hitting well from the outside, and Charles Tryon was working the boards, but Tennessee State's size began to show as the Tigers pulled from behind to claim a 74-70 victory. Coles had 22 points while dealing out seven assists, and Charles Tryon had 10 rebounds.

Five Games in Seven Days

Kentucky State now moved to one of the toughest portions of its schedule. From January 30, to February 5, the Thorobreds played five games . . . five games in seven days.

A rematch with defending NAIA district champion Cumberland in Williamsburg was first on the list. This time, though, the Green and Gold led from start to finish. Kelvin Taylor, who was named NAIA district Player of the Week, scored 30 points and pulled in 10 rebounds in 86-77 win.

Then Carson-Newman came to town and left a 104-58 loser. Bruce Coles, with 19 points and eight assists, and Kelvin Taylor with seven rebounds, led the Breds.

Game three was at Wilberforce and the Breds took top honors with an easy 88-67 win. Again, it was Bruce Coles who led the Thorobreds with 16 points and seven assists. Charles Tryon had seven rebounds.

K-State's three-game winning streak ended the next evening when Central State of Ohio pulled out a hard-fought 98-89 win. Charles Tryon had one of his best games, pulling down 13 rebounds and hitting for 21 points.

Game five was against Bellarmine College in Louisville. The breds had the upper hand throughout the first half, but in the final moments, Bellarmine's Knights took control from a very tired Kentucky State squad and won 85-80. Charles Tryon led Thorobred scorers with 17 points, and Mike Busby worked the backboards for 10 rebounds. Len Williams dealt out six assists. This was K-State's last loss of the season until the NAIA national tournament. The breds record now stood at 13 victories and 10 defeats.

Breds Finish Strong With Three Victories

The 24th game of the year for the K-State and 17th on the road was in Indianapolis against the Metros of Indiana University-Purdue University. Coach Theard's Breds grabbed an early lead and completely dominated play in taking a 107-56 win. Bruce Coles topped Thorobred scorers with 20 points, and Charles Tryon pulled down 10 rebounds.

One of the best games of the year was next for the Breds. Lincoln University in Jefferson City, Missouri, entered the contest with a 17 and 5 record, ranked 12th nationally in the NCAA division II poll. The two teams played evenly throughout the game with neither squad gaining more than a five-point advantage. In the end, it was 17 points by Charles Tryon and 14 rebounds by Clarence Williams which made the difference. K-State came away with a satisfying 59-56 victory and improved its season record to 15 and 10.

Winter homecoming was the final regular season game for Coach Theard's Green and Gold. Wilberforce provided the opposition and K-State provided the power in cruising to an easy 107-74 win. Bruce Coles hit for 17 points and Clarence Williams pulled down nine rebounds to pace the Thorobred attack. A tenth consecutive trip to the NAIA district 32 playoffs was now ahead.

Breds Win NAIA District 32

Cumberland College ended KSU's playoff hopes in 1978, and was looking for a repeat in 1979 as the Indians provided Coach Theard's Thorobreds with their first round opponent. K-State jumped to an early lead and never slowed as the now-seasoned Thorobreds took a relatively easy 85-71 win. Bruce Coles scored 24 points and dealt out nine assists, and Kelvin Taylor grabbed 16 rebounds to pace KSU.

The NAIA district 32 championship game against Berea went from one extreme to another. KSU took an 11 point lead midway through the first half and was ahead 32-27 at intermission. In the second stanza, however, Berea ran off nine straight points to knot the score 43-43. The Mountaineers then surged to a 12 point lead before KSU found the groove. Using 26 points from Bruce Coles, including an 8-foot jumper with 39 seconds remaining, KSU took at 69-67 lead. With 20 seconds to go, Berea had a chance to tie, but the inbounds pass was fumbled and Mike Busby slammed home a dunk shot at the buzzer giving KSU the 71-67 decision. Under first-year Coach Floyd Theard, the Thorobreds had captured its 8th NAIA district 32 championship in 10 years.

KSU Goes to NAIA National Finals

The Thorobreds were placed against Southwest Texas State on Monday, March 12, in Kemper Arena, Kansas City, Missouri. Southwest Texas was the number eight seed and entered the National event with a 25 and 6 record.

In the first half both teams played evenly and the score was tied 35-35 at intermission. Southwest Texas went to work early in the second half and with just four minutes left in the game had forged a 70-62 advantage. The Thorobreds then ran off six straight points to cut the margin to two. Southwest Texas then went to a strong press and delay game to move ahead and claim a 78-74 victory. For the fourth straight game Bruce Coles led the Thorobreds with 19 points, and Charles Tryon pulled down 13 rebounds while adding 16 points. In the end, it was the battle of the boards which defeated KSU, as Southwest Texas grabbed 18 offensive rebounds to the Breds 7. Overall, KSU was outrebounded 43-30.

'Brettes Capture Second Consecutive State Title

For the second consecutive year, KSU's Thorobrettes reigned as champions of the Kentucky Women's Intercollegiate Conference and post-season tournament. The 'Brettes hosted the 1979 KWIC Small College Tournament in the Frankfort High School gymnasium. In the championship game, the Thorobrettes downed archrival Campbellsville 79-63. Carolyn Walker and Denise Goins were named to the All-Tournament team.

Coach C.Y. Russell's team then advanced to the AIAW Southern Region 2 tournament in Louisville. The Thorobrettes lost to U.T. — Chattanooga in the opening round and finished 6th in a 12-team field.

By virtue of winning the Kentucky championship, the Thorobrettes were invited to play in the National Association for Women's Sports Invitational in Hampton, Virginia. Drawing a bye in the first round, the 'Brettes defeated Albany State of Georgia 91-79 in the second round. KSU then lost to eventual tournament champion Jackson State 83-73. The 'Brettes finished fourth in the 12-team event.

Named to the NAWS Invitational All-Tournament team were Carolyn Walker and Denise Goins. Carolyn Walker was also named to the NAWS All-American second team. Denise Goins received Honorable Mention All-American.

KSU finished the year with an excellent 19 wins and 7 defeats. One of their finest years ever!

Women's Volleyball Team Captures Third Consecutive State Crown

For the third consecutive year, the Kentucky State University women's volleyball team captured the Kentucky Women's Intercollegiate Conference Championship and the KWIC Tournament Championship.

In the state tourney, KSU downed Midway 15-3 and 15-8. Then Asbury College 15-1 and 15-7; Georgetown 15-8 and 15-1; and in the championship game defeated Bellarmine 8-15, 15-13, 7-15, 15-11, and 15-7 in the best of five series.

In the AIAW Southern Region 2 tournament, KSU drew tournament host Francis Marion College in Florence, South Carolina. KSU won the game 15-3 and 15-6. In the next round, the Thorobrettes dropped two straight sets to High Point College, High Point, North Carolina, 7-15 and 9-15. In the double elimination tournament KSU fell with a 7-15 and 9-15 loss to Erskine College. The Thorobrettes finished the year with a 21-10 record.

KSU Women's Softball Team Enjoys Excellent First Year

KSU entered its first year of intercollegiate women's softball competition under the direction of head coach Rhonda Uschan. More experienced teams such as the University of Kentucky, University of Louisville, Morehead, Western, Centre, and Campbellsville were tested by KSU's first-year team.

In the Kentucky Intercollegiate Championships, the KSU team was upended by the University of Kentucky 8-4. With a year of experience now behind them, KSU's girls will certainly be contenders in 1980.

KSU Hosts First Whitney M. Young Games

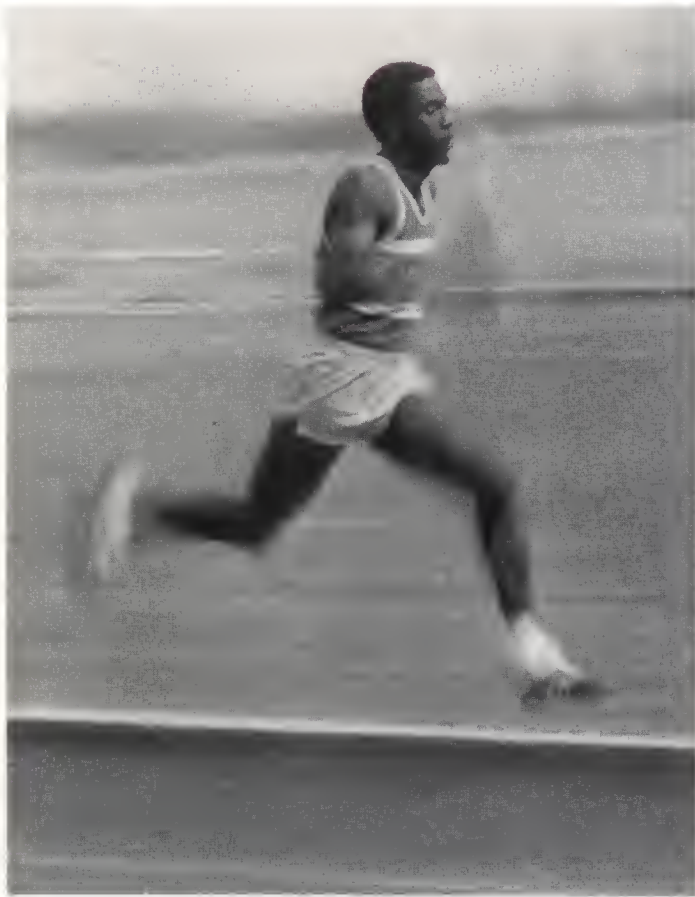

Head Track Coach Kenneth Gibson and the KSU track team hosted the first ever Whitney M. Young games on April 14. The meet is named in honor of Whitney Young, a 1941 graduate of KSU. Several Olympic competitors competed along with the KSU track team, and the Athletes in Action Track Club from Norfolk, Virginia.

Baseball Team Finishes 28-16 for Season

The KSU baseball season was a series of ups and downs for third-year coach Jacob Robinson. Through the first 18 games, the Thorobreds had built only a 10-8 record. Over the next nine games, KSU took eight of the decisions. During that stretch, Lester Strode pitched the only no-hitter of the season. He yielded two walks in seven innings of work, taking a 2-0 decision from Indiana University South East.

From this 18-9 mark, the Thorobreds went on to finish the season with a 28-16 record. They just missed, for the second straight year, a bid to the NAIA District 32 playoffs.

Offensively, the Thorobreds were led by senior shortstop Otis Williams. Williams hit .413 in 38 games. He went to the plate 127 times and pounded out 50 hits with 10 doubles, 4 triples, and 3 homers. He drove in 25 runs, and was 8 for 8 in stolen bases. Williams was named to the NAIA All District 32 team at shortstop. Other Thorobreds named to the All District team were: Gordon Ziegler at first base; Ruben Roque in right field; Lester Strode, pitcher. Ziegler hit .312 with 17 RBI's. Roque hit .362 with 31 RBI's. Roque was also named as an Academic All-American candidate. Strode, a junior fireballer, compiled a 10-3 won-lost record, struck out 103 batters in 66 innings.

KSU vs. Lincoln University 32-20

Lincoln University of Missouri was next as KSU celebrated Homecoming. In the annual celebration, played once again in the rain, the Thorobreds jumped to an early 6-0 lead on a 2-yard run by Victor Rice, and took a 13-0 lead to the locker room on a 18-yard run by Ruie Hannah. KSU seemed to have the game well in hand.

Lincoln was not so agreeable, however. With 14:34 left on the clock, on just the third play of the half, a Tiger running back swept right end 65 yards for a score. Less than 8 minutes later a four-yard run netted Lincoln another score and suddenly it was 14-13. But this was Homecoming, and KSU was not to be denied.

In the final quarter, the Thorobreds rallied for three scores while limiting Lincoln to one for a 32-20 victory. Victor Rice went in from the one and also passed to Ruie Hannah for the second score. Hannah added an insurance TD on a 1-yard run.

KSU vs. Arkansas Pine Bluff 31-17

Next in Alumni Stadium it was Arkansas Pine Bluff. The Thorobreds were now looking seriously at the playoff picture knowing that one more loss or tie would keep them out. The Breds scored quickly in the first quarter to take a 6-0 lead. Arkansas countered with a 35-yard field goal early in the second period, but the Thorobreds added two second quarter scores to take an 18-3 lead at the half.

It was mostly KSU in the second half as Ronald Clark scored on a 4-yard run, Harold Salter, returning to action for the first time since the Mississippi Valley game, carried in from the 2, and Ruie Hannah scored three times on runs of one, two, and 10 yards. Mark Stoute broke a personal scoring drought in the final period. Final score: KSU 31 Arkansas Pine Bluff 17. The Thorobreds moved to 8th in the NAIA national rankings.

KSU vs. Delaware State 18-12

With the playoffs very much on the minds of Thorobred fans everywhere, the Hornets of Delaware State came to call at Alumni Stadium. It was another must win for KSU.

The Hornets were the first to score on a 4-yard pass play and held a 6-0 lead at the end of the first period. The Thorobreds rallied for two second quarter scores and took a 12-16 halftime advantage. Ronald Clark scored on a 3-yard run and Harold Wells scored on a 28-yard pass from Victor Rice.

Delaware State pushed the score to 12-12 on a 10-yard pass play just one minute into the second half. Both teams continued to play strongly on defense before Harold Salter pushed across from the one-yard line with 2:01 remaining in the game. Delaware State could only burn up four downs as KSU ran out the clock on its final possession. Final score: KSU 18 Delaware State 12. The Thorobreds now owned a 7-1-1 record.
